

Non-Discrimination Policy

But Still I Am One complies with all state, federal, and local laws concerning equal opportunity employment practices and non-discrimination. In recognition of its responsibility to its clients, its contractors, and the community it serves, But Still I Am One commits to hiring qualified applicants without regard to race, religion, color, gender, age, national origin, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, disability, or veteran status.

But Still I Am One extends this non-discrimination commitment to the clients of the organization and potential clients seeking services, within the limitations of the eligibility requirements of programs that might be funded only for a certain age range or demographic group. We make this promise to our clients. "We will treat you with dignity and respect. We will not judge you regarding any of the above and are here to listen and provide you support no matter what circumstances you find yourself in. Our aim is to help you thrive."
